It was after long debate that the stockholders of Kona took the matter in their own hands and yesterday made the arrangements which will mean that sugar from the plantation will be on the seas within the month. Orders went forward by the Mauna Loa providing for the starting of the mill, of the week. The additional supplies needed for the carrying on of the plantation will go forward in the next steamer, and from that time there will be no delay in pushing the work of the estate. All the new arrangements for the working of the crop on Kona are those of the stockholders. The cash for the claims of the receiver was found by a committee of the board of directors and arrangements were made whereby the creditors who advanced supplies for the plantation under the receivership, should receive security for their claims and thus withdraw their bills from the receiver's hands. In court yesterday, after notice to Magoon and Dillon, attorneys for the receiver, Hatch & Silliman appeared and made a motion for the discharge of the receiver and the withdrawal of the suit. The motion was heard at noon and the first judge of the first circuit said that this would be done on the filing of an approved bond for the security of the fee and expenses. The attorneys for Mc-Cheshey & Sons, who brought the first sult, stated that acting upon information of the attorneys of the receiver. that the expense of the office would be $1,400, he had prepared a bond for Magoon here interrupted to exhibit a schedule and fee amounting to $2,355.44, and said that there had been incurred for labor to March 7th, $1,429. The court here announced that he would require a bond of $5000, and this was prepared during the afternoon. There are five signatures to the bond, three being stockholders of the company. The names are withheld but it is understood that one of the guaran-tors is B. F. Dillingham. The last mail from the plantation said that there would be no difficulty in having the mill at work with the were assurances of supplies for the laborers, and that the men had made of- ing year, viz: fers to take off the cane so that it could be milled. It is understood that the men will do the work under an agreement that they shall have wage returns from the very first sales of sugar, and that the cash soon will be forthcoming for their entire claims. None of the members of the board of directors of the plantation would discuss the details of the arrangements which are being made for the carrying on of the work, but they insist that the men who have volunteered to work will be able to continue until the sugar is on the market.
